Harwinton's New Town Hall.
The formal opening of the new town hall of Harwinton took place Friday afternoon and evening before a gathering of 300 persons. Following a dinner in the basement at 12:30, the formal exercises opened with an address of welcome by Hon. Morris C. Webster, the master of ceremonies. He gave a brief historical sketch of the building, saying that it was erected in 1840 by the Episcopal Church society. He told of its peculiar origin as the basement had been built by the town on the land owned by the church and the body of the church later completed by the church. Several years ago the church gave its interest in the property to the town and about $4,000 has been expended in remodeling it.

Dropped Dead.
Dayton Goslee, a farm hand employed by Ethel Carlsie, of Goshen, dropped dead on Sunday night while at his work at the barn. He was 50 years of age.

Superior Court Cases.
At Winsted, last week, in the Superior court, the case of Frank E. Ford against Mr. Buck, an action to recover damages of $10,000 for the alleged alienation of Mrs. Ford's affections and various other allegations appertaining thereto, was before the court on motion of Lawyer Herman, appearing for Mr. Buck, for a more specific statement. The court ordered that Mr. Ford file a bond of $75 within two weeks and that Mr. Ford file a more specific statement within one month. Two divorces were granted by Judge Curtis. In the case of John H. Green of Norfolk against Carrie E. Green a decree was granted on the ground of desertion and Mr. Green was given the custody of a minor child. A decree was also granted in the Torringdon case of Margaret Ferency against John Ferency, which intolerable cruelty and habitual intemperance were alleged. Mrs. Ferency was given the custody of two minor children. The contested divorce case of Lena G. Gray against Henry H. Gray, both of Harwinton, was withdrawn. Mrs. Gray in her complaint alleged intemperance and intolerable cruelty and asked for a divorce, alimony and change of name.

is served every day at the Fairfield Restaurant "in" Fairfield avenue from noon until midnight and is proving very popular. The price is a moderate one and the food is of the best as well as the service. The new departure of the management in introducing dancing in the Rathskeller every Tuesday evening proved popular last night and there was a large and pleasant party assembled. The dancing is under the direction of E. J. Sherry and Kearns' orchestra furnishes the music. Everything about the conduct of the dances is kept at the same high standard as the other features of this popular restaurant which has been called "The Shanley's of Bridgeport" and many of the features of the big New York restaurants will be introduced from time to time. Service, cuisine, and entertainment are all strictly first class and warrant to patronage of the Bridgeport public. Try the Fairfield.—Adv.
